

Site	Name	(Object Short Name, if given)	Type	Acc	Description
Hayle Heritage Centre	Duke of Cornwall Light Infantry (D.C.L.I) Officer's forage cap	cap	Uniform	HAYHF:2014.106.3
Hayle Heritage Centre	Duke of Cornwall Light Infantry (D.C.L.I) cap badge; metal with Cornucopia and crown design	badge	Uniform	HAYHF:2014.106.4
Hayle Heritage Centre	red military dress tunic with sash and belt; tunic is a Duke of Cornwall Light Infantry uniform (1899) which belonged to Lieutenant Colonel William Lieug Harvey DSO; tunic is predominantly red with white collar and sleeves which are decorated with golden embroidery patterns. There is also golden embroidery on both shoulders. The edge of the front of the tunic has a thin white border next to the button holes which are fastened by golden metallic buttons. The buttons have 'DUKE OF CORNWALL'S LIGHT INFY' stamped around the Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry emblem (Crown at top, Cornwall written on a banner and a stringed bugle horn below); on both sides of the collar is a badge with the Cornish shield (15 gold dots on black background, crown on top) with a blue background around the shield which has 'ONE AND ALL' in gold along the bottom; on top of the shoulders the central button will unscrew; the back of the uniform has two golden coloured buttons near the middle and a thin white strips vertically extending to the bottom of the tunic	uniform	Uniform	HAYHF:2017.29	William Lieug Harvey was born in St Erth Parish on 17th July 1858. He was from the famous Harvey's of Hayle, whose foundry dominated the global engineering market in the nineteenth century and whom were known for the world's largest ever beam engines; He was commissioned into the 46th Regiment of Foot on 30th January 1878 and he became Lieutenant in the Duke of Cornwall Light Infantry (DCLI) on 18th June 1881; In 1882 he served in the Egyptian Expedition and was present at the Battle of Tel el-Kebir. On 24th September 1884 he was promoted to Captain and served in the Sudan (1884 –1885), followed by the Nile Expedition; Promoted to Major on 31st August 1894, he served in the South African war (1899 – 1902). At Kaspminden he was Commandant and took part in operations in the Orange Free State, Poplar Grove, Driefontein, Houtnek, Vet River, Zand River and the Transvaal; Major Harvey was mentioned in dispatches on 10th September 1901 and 29th July 1902. He was also awarded the Queens Medal for his bravery and created a Companion of Distinguished Service Order (DSO) in recognition of his services in South Africa. The Insignia was sent to Lord Kitchener and was presented to William in 1902; Major Harvey retired in November 1902 with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. However, during WWI he commanded the DCLI depot in Bodmin, Cornwall. In 1893 he married Florence Hooper, daughter of Captain FC Hooper of the 18th Hussars. They lived in a large house at Tredarvah, Penzance with their two children, Henry and Marion, a governess and four servants; William died on the 22nd December 1937 aged 79. He is buried alongside his wife in St Erth churchyard

Hayle Heritage Centre	scanned postcard of Duke of Cornwall Light Infantry (D.C.L.I) soldiers; image shows 8 soldiers, 4 sat down on grass in front of 4 standing up at the back, all with cups in their hand with tents in the background; scan of back of postcard shows a discoloured blank page, aside from printed labels for where correspondence and addresses are written and the title 'POST CARD' at top centre	digital image	Photograph	HAYHF:2018.18.1
Hayle Heritage Centre	scanned postcard of Duke of Cornwall Light Infantry (D.C.L.I) soldiers; image shows a soldier standing up, posing with a whip in his left hand, standing in front of a curtain that's painted to show a wall and foliage on it; there's handwriting in black pen to the left of the soldier which says "Yours Truly Robert"; scan of back of postcard shows a slightly foxed blank page, aside from printed labels for where correspondence and addresses are written and the title 'POST CARD BRITISH MADE' at top centre. Handwritten on the left in black Biro is Robert Letcher'.	digital image	Photograph	HAYHF:2018.18.2
Hayle Heritage Centre	scanned postcard of Duke of Cornwall Light Infantry (D.C.L.I) soldier; image shows a soldier standing up beside a wooden stand (upon which his helmet is placed) posing with a cigarette in his right hand, in front of a curtain that's painted to show a jungle scene; scan of back of postcard shows a discoloured, slightly foxed blank page, aside from printed labels for where correspondence, addresses and stamp are placed and the title 'POST CARD CARTE POSTALE' at top centre	digital image	Photograph	HAYHF:2018.18.3
Hayle Heritage Centre	scanned postcard of Duke of Cornwall Light Infantry (D.C.L.I) soldiers; image shows 4 soldiers posing with rifles in their hands stood in front of a large number of white tents as far back as the view allows; scan of back of postcard shows a discoloured/dirty, slightly foxed blank page, aside from printed labels for where correspondence and addresses are written and the title 'POST	digital image	Photograph	HAYHF:2018.18.4

	CARD' at top centre. Printed vertical on the left is the manufacturer's details of J. EASDEN & SON from Plymouth
--	--	--	--	--	--